

SMSC provision at Meriden CE Primary School

Subject PSHEE

| |
|---|
| Spiritual |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Children may learn that some children are different to them and have different values and morals due to a different religious and spiritual background. |
| Moral |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Children can learn right and wrong during 'say no to bullying' and 'getting on and falling out.'• Throughout PSHEE they will learn important life values• Children will learn behaviour that is morally right and appropriate• Children will understand to respect other children's feelings and opinions and family morals and they will realise that everyone has different morals and values depending on culture, family, lifestyle etc.• Children will recognise morals of stories during PSHEE assemblies• Children will learn to strive for the best and reach their full potential in the unit, 'going for goals.' |
| Social |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Children will learn to communicate effectively, politely and appropriately with peers, adults and the wider community.• During PSHEE lessons, children will discuss, role play, write about different social settings and appropriate and inappropriate social behaviours.• Children will learn how to respect people's opinions and take turns during circle time.• Children learn to interact and communicate with their peers when celebrating their success during PSHEE celebration assemblies.• Children will learn about positive and negative social interactions during topics such as, 'getting on and falling out, relationships and say no to bullying.• Through PSHEE work, children will realise that not all social interactions are positive, however they will learn how to deal with this and address this situation.• Children will be encouraged to respond and recognise social similarities and differences.• Pupils will learn how to resolve tensions and disagreements. |
| Cultural |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Children may learn that some children are different to them and have different values and morals due to a different cultural background.• Children will hear stories in PSHEE assemblies and during lessons which may be from another culture.• Children will recognise that everyone is different, and that they may have a different religion, culture, talent, learning need etc. |